

Heller Theatre

Looking Back, Looking Ahead

Heller Theatre strives to improve quality of life in Tulsa, instilling a sense of community and fostering artistic expression for its participants and patrons.

Heller Theatre has been a part of the Tulsa community for over 27 years, serving up the best of contemporary comedy and drama. This season marks a milestone in our history. In January 2009, Heller Theatre moves to a new location.

Our new home in Henthorne Park offers great advantages: increased seating capacity, convenient access from the Brookside area, and a comfortable lobby. But with these improvements come new challenges.

Much of the cost of converting the Henthorne community center to a theatre will have to come from you! We are counting on support from our loyal patrons during this exciting time.

You can help make Heller Theatre better than ever! Please consider making a tax-deductible contribution. Our contribution form on the back makes giving easy.

Reviews

“... really, really, really funny... this production is a local gem, and you owe it to yourself to see it.” Paul Sheckarski, Urban Tulsa Weekly on “Recent Tragic Events”

“Hannah and Martin” maintains a concentration that very rarely waivers, due in part to fascinating dialogue, intelligent acting, careful design and thorough direction.” Karen Shade, Tulsa World

From our Patrons:

“Excellent. It reminded me of why great theatre exists and is needed.”

“What a wonderful community resource— the audience is always full.”

Thanks to the George Kaiser Family Foundation for becoming our first “Lead” Supporter!

Why Do We Need Your Support?

Converting Henthorne into a theatre will require:

- Building improvements--stage floor, lighting, sound, etc.
- Additional artistic & technical personnel
- New signage
- Moving all our existing equipment
